Note 1: From 1 April 2016, higher rates of SDLT apply on purchases of additional properties by individuals. This rate is also payable by companies and other entities.

Note 2: From 1 April 2021, non-UK residents purchasing a residential property in England and Northern Ireland will be subject to a 2% SDLT surcharge in addition to the main rate SDLT payable by UK residents.

Note 3: Higher rates do not apply while replacing main residence, subject to meeting certain conditions or for purchases under £40,000.

Note 4: Sliding-scale rates do not apply when residential property is acquired by certain corporates and 'non-natural persons' (companies, partnerships with a company as a partner and collective investment schemes) for more than £500,000. Instead, these entities pay a flat rate of 17% SDLT from 31 October 2024 (15% up to 30 October 2024) (19% and 17% for non-UK resident entities for respective dates), subject to relief for qualifying activities or bodies. 'Non-natural persons' may also be subject to the Annual Tax on Enveloped Dwellings (ATED) regime.
